

A top-down view of a white table setting. In the center is a white plate with a smaller white plate on top of it. On the smaller plate, there is a small green herb garnish. Surrounding the plates are silverware: a spoon above the top plate, a knife and spoon to the right of the bottom plate, and two forks to the left of the bottom plate. A small white saucer is in the top left, and two wine glasses are in the top right. A white napkin is partially visible on the far left.
